ORDER

In the reference 2nd read above, the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, A.P, Hyderabad has stated that, Sri M.S.Venkata Prasadu, VRO, Ananthapuram District, expired on 03-10-2013 while in service, Smt. M.S. Rojaramani W/o diseased, has applied for appointment on compassionate grounds. The Collector, Anantapuramu has also reported that the applicant studied up to 10th class in Karnataka State and she passed Intermediate(APOSS) Public examination during May 2014. Hence the Collector has requested for certain clarification with regard to Local Status whether she can be considered for Compassionate appointment as she studied upto 10th class in Karnataka State. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration has therefore requested to pass further orders in the matter.

2. However, after examining the matter, in the reference 3rd read above, it was informed to the CCLA, A.P./District Collector, Ananthapuramu to follow the existing rules/instructions scrupulously.

1. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administraion in his letter 4th read above, while bringing about the earlier orders passed by the Government in a similar case of compassionate appointment, wherein relaxed the rules in favour of Smt Kamkshi who studied from VI to Xth class at West Bengal State, has requested to reconsider the proposals submitted earlier duly relaxing the rules and to communicate the orders.

2. Having examined the proposal in detail, and inview of the position of the family, which lost the earning member in the family, and keeping in view the dependents of the minor female children of the deceased, the Government after sympathetic consideration of the matter, hereby order that Smt. Rojaramani W/o late M.S. Venakta Prasadu, VRO, who died while in service, be appointed as VRO under compassionate grounds as a special case on humanitarian grounds, in relaxation of rules subject to satisfying the other conditions for such appointment as prescribed under the scheme of compassionate appointment of dependents.

3. The Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, A.P., Hyderabad/the District Collector,Ananthapuram shall take further necessary action in the matter accordingly.
